About Me

I have 22 years' experience cutting drama, factual and observational documentaries and I particularly enjoy editing compelling human stories. I have a strong sense of narrative and structure as well as an eye for detail and pacing. I am committed to my work, enthusiastic and enjoy working as part of a team. I enjoy cutting a variety of programs on all sorts of budgets and formats and I am used to work under pressure and to a deadline.

Experience

2014 – 2022 Freelance Editor Madrid, Spain

I have worked with national and international teams, both on huge productions and 3-person teams, with large and modest budgets, remotely and on location. I have been working as the lead editor on several award-winning projects, for HBO, DMAX, and Discovery Latam. During that time, I also cut several feature length documentaries like The CIA's Lost Army and Humanity from Space for Discovery Max and PBS respectively.

2002 – 2014 Freelance Editor London, UK

I started working as a freelance documentary editor in London in 2002. Over the years I have cut observational, science, drama reconstruction and factual documentaries for BBC (Trawlermen), Channel 4 (9/11 State of Emergency), Discovery Channel (How the Universe Works), National Geographic (Seconds from Disaster) and Channel 5 (My Secret Past) amongst many others.

Education

1999-2001 Graduate from The London Film School:

Two years full-time Diploma Course on The Art and Technique of Filmmaking.
